

Czech Republic: UKH

the international fellowship of evangelical students

In spite of the history of atheism in the country, the IFES work in Prague has been slowly but steadily growing. At the very international Kolej Hostivar University, the students recently went door-to-door, inviting friends to a "One World" evening, and hoping to start good conversations with their classmates. On the night itself, students will showcase their home countries and two UKH students will give their testimonies. This is an opportunity for the Christian students to be visible amongst their peers, and to stand up for Jesus.

Give thanks for...

- The enthusiasm of so many UKH students in their evangelism.
- Tom Uher (the general secretary) and his commitment to the ministry. Pray for his wedding this summer to Daniella and as they prepare for marriage.

- Gareth Morris, the InterAction team leader and pastor of a local church, and his love for Jesus and students. Pray for continued strength and wisdom.

Pray for...

- The eight or so different UKH groups meeting around the country—pray that they will be creative, bold and faithful in their witness.
- The new InterAction team

1 May 2009

members starting next year—pray that they would prepare well over the summer, and that they would be able to raise the support they need.

Major language: Czech

Major religion: unaffiliated 59%

Number of students: 344,000

InterAction team: focuses on local and international students

DATES FOR PRAYER (in the upcoming 3 months)

27 May: evangelistic talk at Prague Philosophy Faculty about the economic crisis

12-18 July: summer English camp and mission with a team of internationals

IFES Europe: In 2007 the Central European and Western European regions merged to form one region—Europe, headed by Martin Hazimann, the regional secretary and a team of 7 other associate regional secretaries. The European region is made up of 40 countries, stretching from Ireland to Eurasia and from Iceland to Malta. Although often thought of as a Christian area, Christianity has been steadily declining throughout the region as mission focus has shifted elsewhere. But praise God that although secularism and Islam thrive, Europe is not forgotten. 38 countries have IFES movements, and each day students and staff are reaching out with the good news of Jesus. Please pray for boldness and grace as they hold out the Word of life.

PRAYER across Europe:

• Pray for the European Leadership Forum from 23-28 May. Pray that this will be a fruitful time of sharing and encouragement for Christian leaders across the region.

• Pray that the Baltic Graduates conference in June will strengthen the commitment to lifelong discipleship in Christ amongst graduates in the area.

PRAYER for IFES around the world:

• Pray for TSCF-PNG, the IFES movement in Papua New Guinea. Pray that the Christians there would continue to live godly lives and affect their society for Christ—bringing hope to those who don't yet know Him.

• But praise God for students in Mali who share Jesus with their friends and show the integration of faith and life. Pray for [Samuel's] two friends, studying the Bible, to trust in Jesus.
